ABOUT US

At Ltwo we are goal-driven educators and enthusiastic supporters of interaction among people and cultures. Being passionate about languages and entrepreneurship, we obtain pure curiosity about every given field of study and work.

Throughout our ongoing years of academic studying and hands-on experience, we have acquired excellent communication, personal management, and problem-solving skills, critical thinking, the capacity to work under pressure, and an eye for detail.

We are team players with strong work values and learning skills, always fond of innovative ideas for projects in business and education, and cannot make do without discipline in passion, productivity, and creativity! Our positive, can-do attitude and our hardworking and enterprising approach have made all our cooperations flourish and our clients happy!

THE PROJECT

If you have the desire to visit Greece as a tourist, combined with the aspiration to learn a foreign language...

book your unforgettable trip to Greece with us along with our teacher-guides and an associate tourist agency. We will organize an unforgettable and unique tailor-made experience for you that can combine visits to places of archaeological interest, language classes, culinary events, and fun outings! Interactions with companies or individuals who work in the field of your academic interest are also at your disposal upon availability.

Languages provided: English (General/Business), Greek for foreigners, Russian, Italian, and others upon demand.
